

Wine of the Week

Pessagno 2005 Lucia Highlands Chardonnay

Wine profile

■ Essentials: This wine is rich and elegant, offering deep concentrated layers of apple, ripe pear, and pineapple, with a hint of caramel from oak aging. The lingering butterscotch finish, will invite you back for continued enjoyment.

■ Enjoy: Pair with grilled chicken, pork, or creamy pasta dishes.

■ Winemaker: Steve Pessagno, winemaking veteran of Monterey County for 20 years.

■ Price: $26.00 retail

Instant expert

■ Lucia Highlands Vineyard is located in the northern region of the Santa Lucia Highlands appellation of the Monterey County and just a rock toss across the street from our winery. Proximity to the cool, maritime influences of the Monterey Bay allows the fruit to ripen slowly, producing exceptional Chardonnay with intense, up-front tropical fruit flavors, seductive texture, and high natural acidity.

Monterey Wine Country

WHERE GREAT TASTE BEGINS™

More about this wine online

www.pessagnowines.com

Brought to you by:

Monterey County
Vintners and Growers Association

Visit their web site,

www.montereywines.org

- Winery map, locations and hours
- Upcoming wine-related events
- Carmel Valley Grapevine Express
- History of local wine-making